Location

The property sits proudly within Peak District National Park, an area of outstanding natural beauty famed for its walking, cycling and wildlife watching. Steep limestone valleys like Dovedale, with its stepping stones, and Lathkill Dale, draw visitors from around the world.

Warslow is a picturesque village in the Staffordshire Moorlands situated high above the Manifold Valley. There is a local primary school which also caters for pre-school children. There is also a welcoming pub and village hall. The local countryside is accessible by foot from the house, and many nearby attractions. The setting is magnificent for walking, cycling and climbing. The village is within easy reach of Buxton, Ashbourne and Leek.

A 15 minute drive away is the thriving market town of Leek which offers a refreshing alternative from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages.

Educationally, the area is well-served by a range of highly regarded schools. These include Leek First School, Westwood First School, and Westwood College. Notable independent options such as St Anselm's in Bakewell (Tatler Prep School of the Year 2021), Abbotsholme School, and Denstone College are within reasonable travelling distance.
