A listed building has a story and a soul, and as an owner you need to work out how to respect its story and soul and bring out the best in it.' - Historic England

The Old Coach House is a stunning Grade II Listed home originally serving as the coach house to Knypersley Hall. The current owner has undertaken a sensitive and thoughtful conversion, carefully preserving the building's historic character while creating spacious, elegant living spaces. Original features such as stone mullion windows, vaulted ceilings, exposed beams, and the six stone carriage arches have been retained and highlighted, seamlessly blending heritage with modern comfort.

Denise White Estate Agents Comments

Steeped in history and sophistication, The Old Coach House forms part of the original Knypersley Hall estate and dates back to the 16th century. Once serving as the grand coach house to the Hall, this remarkable Grade II Listed home has been thoughtfully and sympathetically converted by the current owner to create a stunning blend of period character and refined contemporary living.

Behind its handsome stone and brick façade lies accommodation of exceptional quality, offering three elegant reception rooms and five double bedrooms, four of which feature luxurious ensuite facilities.

The living room, spanning over six metres, is a wonderful space for relaxation and entertaining, featuring a stone fireplace with herringbone brickwork and a log-burning stove, all framed by the home's stunning original stone-arched carriage bays—each fitted with French doors that bathe the room in natural light and provide access to the private garden.

A further reception room, currently used as a formal dining room, offers versatile use as a home office, playroom, or snug. Completing the ground floor is a well-appointed utility room, a stylish cloakroom/WC, and integral garage access. There is also underfloor heating throughout the ground floor.

The first floor reveals five spacious double bedrooms, each full of character with stone mullioned windows, vaulted ceilings, and exposed beams that celebrate the building's heritage. Four bedrooms feature private ensembles, while the family bathroom provides a luxurious retreat, complete with a free-standing bath, walk-in shower, and twin wall mounted sinks.

Outside, the property is approached through the original stone arch gateway, leading to off-road parking for multiple vehicles. The enclosed private garden offers a tranquil escape, with a manicured lawn and stone patio area—perfect for alfresco dining and accessible directly from the kitchen and living room via French doors.

With its rich history, architectural splendour, and immaculately curated interiors, The Old Coach House represents a rare opportunity to own a piece of Knypersley's heritage—an exquisite home where period character and modern luxury coexist in perfect harmony.

Location

Set within the historic Knypersley Hall estate, The Old Coach House enjoys a peaceful and characterful setting surrounded by beautiful Staffordshire countryside. Once the original coach house to Knypersley Hall, the property is believed to date back to the 1600s and forms part of a distinguished estate with origins tracing to ancient times and the de Knypersley family.

Knypersley is a sought-after semi-rural village on the edge of the Staffordshire Moorlands, offering an ideal balance between countryside living and everyday convenience. Surrounded by scenic woodland, open fields and historic estates, the area is perfect for those who enjoy walking, cycling and outdoor pursuits, with Knypersley Reservoir and Greenway Bank Country Park both just moments away.

The village is well placed for local amenities, with nearby Biddulph providing a range of shops, supermarkets, cafés and schools. The larger towns of Leek, Congleton and Newcastle-under-Lyme are all within easy reach, offering further shopping, leisure and dining options.

For commuters, Knypersley enjoys good transport links, with the A527 connecting to the A34 and M6 motorway, providing convenient access to Manchester, Macclesfield, Stoke-on-Trent and surrounding areas. Regular rail services from Congleton Station link to Manchester and Stoke, making the location practical for both work and leisure travel.

Knypersley offers a welcoming community atmosphere and a peaceful setting, making it a popular choice for families and professionals seeking a high quality of life within easy reach of major towns and cities.

Anti-Money Laundering & ID Checks

Once an offer is accepted on a property marketed by Denise White Estate Agents we are required to complete ID verification checks on all buyers and to apply ongoing monitoring until the transaction ends. Whilst this is the responsibility of Denise White Estate Agents we may use the services of Guild365, to verify Clients' identity. This is not a credit check and therefore will have no effect on your credit history. You agree for us to complete these checks, and the cost of these checks is £30.00 inc. VAT per buyer. This is paid in advance, when an offer is agreed and prior to a sales memorandum being issued. This charge is non-refundable.
