Denise White Estate Agents Comments

Occupying an enviable elevated position on the edge of Biddulph Moor, Lane End Farm is a charming stone-built country cottage set within approximately three acres of beautifully maintained gardens and grazing land, commanding breathtaking far-reaching views across the surrounding Staffordshire Moorlands countryside, Cheshire plains and beyond. Dating back to the 1800s, this delightful home effortlessly combines period character and charm with modern comforts, having been lovingly improved and meticulously maintained by the current owners.

The accommodation begins with a welcoming entrance hallway, where a beautiful oak staircase rises to the first floor. From here, doors lead to the principal ground floor rooms, including the impressive lounge positioned to the front of the property. This spacious reception room is centred around a stunning exposed brick fireplace housing a multi-fuel stove, creating a warm and inviting focal point. Bi-fold doors open directly onto a superb terrace featuring a sunken hot tub, perfectly positioned to take advantage of the spectacular countryside views and unforgettable sunsets.

Returning through the hallway, there is a useful downstairs WC and utility room before entering the heart of the home – a wonderful open-plan dining kitchen. Designed with both family living and entertaining in mind, the dining area provides ample space for a large table and chairs, while the kitchen is fitted with an attractive range of farmhouse-style shaker units complemented by granite work surfaces and a central island with solid oak worktop and breakfast bar. Integrated appliances and space for a freestanding range cooker complete the space, whilst a spiral staircase provides separate access to Bedroom Two, offering versatility for guests or independent living arrangements.

To the first floor, a bright and airy landing leads to four well-proportioned bedrooms. The principal bedroom enjoys a particularly impressive position, with dual-aspect windows framing stunning panoramic views across the surrounding countryside. Bedrooms Two and Three are generous doubles linked by a Jack and Jill shower room, while Bedroom Four is a comfortable double room benefitting from built-in storage. Serving the remaining bedrooms is a beautifully appointed family bathroom, fitted with a traditional suite featuring a freestanding claw-foot roll-top bath.

The property benefits from oil-fired central heating together with solar panels, helping to provide an efficient and sustainable source of electricity.

Externally, Lane End Farm is approached via a private gated driveway providing extensive off-road parking for numerous vehicles and leading to a double garage. Adjacent to the garage is a versatile annexe currently utilised as a home office complete with log-burning stove, offering excellent potential for a variety of alternative uses, subject to any necessary consents.

The gardens have been thoughtfully landscaped and exceptionally well cared for, creating a series of private and attractive outdoor spaces. Expanses of lawn are bordered by mature trees, shrubs and colourful flower beds, while a separate enclosed area is currently utilised as a dog agility training space. A beautifully established pond with integrated waterfall provides a tranquil focal point within the grounds.

Extending to the front of the property, the land comprises a useful paddock ideal for horses, sheep or smallholding livestock and connects directly to a substantial and versatile barn, providing excellent storage and shelter for agricultural or equestrian purposes.

Set amidst some of the Staffordshire Moorlands' most picturesque countryside, Lane End Farm offers a rare opportunity to acquire a characterful country home with land, outbuildings and spectacular views, whilst remaining conveniently placed for the market towns of Leek, Congleton and Biddulph and within easy reach of Stoke-on-Trent and the wider road network.

Location

Biddulph Moor is a popular rural village nestled within the beautiful Staffordshire Moorlands, enjoying a stunning countryside setting with easy access to both the Peak District and neighbouring market towns. The village offers a welcoming community atmosphere together with a range of everyday amenities, while the nearby towns of Biddulph and Leek provide a wider selection of shops, supermarkets, cafés and leisure facilities.

Surrounded by open countryside, the area is ideal for those who enjoy walking, cycling and outdoor pursuits, with countless scenic routes on the doorstep. Despite its peaceful location, Biddulph Moor remains well connected, with convenient road links to Stoke-on-Trent, Congleton, Macclesfield each of which provide excellent rail links to Manchester, Birmingham and London as well as access to the wider motorway network, making it an excellent choice for those seeking a balance between rural living and accessibility.
