"A house built of stone endures; a home filled with character lasts forever"

A charming early -19th century stone-built cottage occupying a beautiful edge-of-village position in Winkhill, surrounded by open countryside and far-reaching rural views. Brimming with character features including exposed beams, thick stone walls and a feature fireplace, the property offers three double bedrooms, attractive cottage gardens, a wonderful vegetable garden and ample scope for modernisation. An idyllic Staffordshire Moorlands home with open fields quite literally on the doorstep.

Denise White Estate Agents Comments

Nestled on the edge of the picturesque village of Winkhill, Bromley Cottage is a charming period stone-built cottage dating back to the early-1800s, enjoying a delightful position surrounded by the beautiful Staffordshire Moorlands countryside. Full of character and original charm, the property offers accommodation typical of its era, with thick stone walls, exposed ceiling beams, low ceilings and traditional cottage-style windows that perfectly frame the stunning rural views beyond.

An entrance porch welcomes you into the cottage kitchen, which has been fitted with a range of units incorporating a breakfast bar, integrated appliances and a freestanding range-style cooker, creating a practical yet characterful heart of the home. From the kitchen, an inner hallway provides access to the first-floor staircase and two reception rooms.

The lounge enjoys a dual-aspect position, allowing natural light to flood the room whilst taking full advantage of the surrounding countryside views. Character features abound, including exposed ceiling beams and an attractive exposed stone fireplace with tiled hearth, creating a warm and inviting focal point. The dining room is positioned to the rear of the property and offers a cosy and intimate setting for family meals and entertaining alike.

To the first floor, there are three generously proportioned double bedrooms, two of which benefit from built-in wardrobes and storage. Each bedroom enjoys delightful views across the neighbouring fields and rolling countryside. Completing the accommodation is a spacious family bathroom.

Externally, Bromley Cottage occupies a good-sized plot with attractive cottage-style gardens comprising lawned areas bordered by colourful and well-established flower beds, providing year-round interest and charm. To the rear, a vegetable garden area offers the perfect opportunity for keen gardeners to grow their own produce and embrace a more self-sufficient lifestyle.

A driveway provides off-road parking for two to three vehicles, whilst the property's enviable setting adjoining open fields ensures uninterrupted views across the surrounding countryside, where the nearest neighbours are often grazing sheep or cows.

Offering immense potential, Bromley Cottage presents an exciting opportunity for purchasers seeking a character home which offers potential for them to personalise and create a truly special countryside residence. Ideal for first-time buyers, couples and families alike, the property enjoys a peaceful rural setting whilst remaining within easy reach of local village amenities and the market towns of Leek, Ashbourne and Cheadle.

Location

Nestled within the heart of the Staffordshire Moorlands and surrounded by some of the region's most breathtaking countryside, Winkhill is a charming rural village offering an enviable lifestyle for those seeking peace, natural beauty and a strong sense of community. Situated close to the spectacular Manifold Valley and the southern fringes of the Peak District National Park, the village is particularly popular with walkers, cyclists and outdoor enthusiasts who are drawn to the abundance of scenic trails, rolling hills and unspoilt landscapes on the doorstep.

Despite its tranquil setting, Winkhill is conveniently located for access to a range of everyday amenities. The nearby villages of Waterhouses and Ipstones provide local shops, public houses, schools and community facilities, whilst the historic market town of Leek offers a wider selection of independent boutiques, supermarkets, restaurants, cafés and leisure amenities. The market towns of Ashbourne and Cheadle are also within easy reach, providing further shopping, educational and recreational opportunities.

The surrounding area is rich in heritage and rural charm, with picturesque stone-built villages, traditional country inns and a wealth of attractions including the Manifold Trail, Dovedale, Thor's Cave and the renowned Peak District National Park. Excellent road links connect the village to Stoke-on-Trent, Derby and the wider Midlands, making Winkhill an attractive choice for commuters seeking a countryside retreat without compromising on accessibility.

Combining stunning scenery, outdoor pursuits and a relaxed pace of life, Winkhill offers an exceptional setting for those looking to enjoy the very best of Staffordshire Moorlands living.
